I understand that if the initial Certificate of Occupancy inspection reveals violations, compliance must be met within 30-days from the date of the initial inspection. It is the responsibility of the applicant/owner to call the Inspections Department and schedule a re-inspection if necessary. If compliance is not met within the 30-days allowed, a re-inspection fee of $60.00 will be required and/or the applicant and/or owner may be subject to the issuance of a municipal citation and/or the utilities may be disconnected at the discretion of the inspector. Upon re-inspection, the property must be in full compliance or the applicant and/or owner will receive a municipal citation and/or the utilities will be disconnected.
