A TEXAS POLICE CHIEF'S ASSOCIATION
RECOGNIZED LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

Sec. 4-2. - Permit required.

- (a) No person shall operate or cause to be operated an alarm system within the city without an alarm permit issued by the chief of police or his representative. A separate permit is required for each alarm system.
- (b) A permit is valid for a period of two years from the date of issuance and must be renewed by submitting an updated application and payment of the required fee, in the amount as established from time to time. It is the responsibility of the permit holder to submit an application prior to the permit expiration date.

(Code 1987, ch. 3, § 21B; Code 2004, § 4.1402)

Sec. 4-6. - Responsibilities of permit holder.

- (a) A permit holder shall have the following responsibilities:
  - (1) Maintain the premises containing an alarm system in a manner that ensures proper operation of the alarm system;
  - (2) Maintain the alarm system in a manner that will minimize false alarm notification;
  - (3) Respond or cause a representative of the alarm business to respond, within a reasonable period of time, to a malfunctioning alarm system, for the purpose of deactivating or repairing the alarm system, for providing access to the premises or for providing security for the premises;
  - (4) Refrain from manually activating an alarm, without prior notification to the police department, for any reason other than the occurrence of an event that the alarm system was intended to report;
  - (5) Notify the police department prior to activating an alarm for maintenance purposes.
- (b) A permit holder shall not utilize any alarm system which causes an audible signal to be emitted for more than 15 minutes after being activated or which emits a subsequent alarm without being reset.

(Code 1987, ch. 3, § 21F; Code 2004, § 4.1406)

Sec. 4-9. - Violation.

- (a) A person commits an offense if he violates by commission or omission any provision of this chapter that imposes upon him a duty of responsibility.
- (b) A person who violates a provision of this chapter is guilty of a separate offense for each day or portion of a day during which the violation is committed, continued, or permitted, and each violation is punishable by a fine in accordance with the general penalty provision set forth in section 1-11 upon conviction.

(Code 1987, ch. 3, § 21I; Code 2004, § 4.1409)
