

December 27, 2018

Standing Order

002

Plea at window

As of this order defendant who are 17 years of age or older at the time of the violation who desire to enter a plea of guilty or nolo contendere at the window may do so and either have a conviction entered upon their record or request deferred disposition in accordance with law and the courts standing orders. They will need to sign a plea form the same as if they came to court to enter their plea in open court.

Craig Magnuson
Presiding Judge

