

December 27, 2018
Standing Order
005
Legal advice by clerks

The court clerks are strictly prohibited from answering legal questions or offering legal opinions to defendants. Any defendant who wishes to have legal questions answered should be directed to seek the advice of an attorney. This does not restrict in anyway the clerks' ability to supply any forms that are available or answer any non-legal questions that they are qualified to answer.

Craig Magnuson
Presiding Judge

